

Craniosacral Therapy Part 1

With Sarah Anne Barker

When: November 5-8, 2016

Where: The Quiet Cone @ Latrobe,
Tasmania

Sarah graduated from the College of Craniosacral Therapy, London, UK in 1994 and has helped thousands of people reclaim their wellness. Craniosacral Therapy is a subtle art of deep healing based in the structure of the spine and central nervous system which helps to clear stresses at a physical and an emotional level.

Sarah is an experienced teacher has agreed to run this popular 4 day course to share her wealth of knowledge and experience gained by her 20 years as a Craniosacral Therapist.

This hands on workshop is open to everyone, and offers a foundation in the understanding and practise of Craniosacral Therapy for personal use or for those who already work within healing modalities.

The course includes:

- The structure and function of the Craniosacral system.
- The Craniosacral rhythms and palpation.
- Benefits of Craniosacral Therapy.
- Craniosacral therapy techniques.
- The impact of birth on our structure and health and well-being.
- How to use Craniosacral Therapy for personal use or with other health modalities.
